

§1 Yes, Brazil is a welcome country for immigrants, which ones, according to the Brazilian Federal Law 13.445/2017 (the Brazilian Migration Law), will be under a Politics that considers “the guarantee to the family meeting” (Article 3º, VIII), the “equality of treatment and opportunity” (Incise IX, Art. 3º), the “protection of the human rights of migrants” (Incise XV, Art. 3º).

§2 Immigrants are so welcome to Brazil that in the Federal Constitution is established, since more than 3 decades ago, that: “Everyone is equal under the Law, without distinction of any kind and with guarantee, for Brazilians as well as for foreigners residing in the country, of the inviolability of the rights to life, freedom, equality, security and property”.

§3 If you are planning to move and live in Brazil, you will start with a Temporary Visa, that will permit residency for a specific period, and according to each situation (Law 13.445, Article 14). For example, you can buy a house here, and get a “Golden” Visa based on this investment; you can found a qualified job in Brazil (high qualified professional is a constant demand); you can be a Digital Nomad; or you can be considered as a person that needs humanitarian protection because war in your country, because serious human rights violations in your origin nation. And once you obtain a Temporary Visa, you can bring together your family - spouse/partner, child...relatives up to the second degree (Article 37).

§4 In the Brazilian territory, the immigrant with a Temporary Visa shall receive a “Registro Nacional Migratório (RNM)”, that is an Identification Document (Article 19, Law 13.445).

§5 Come be part of the Federative Republic of Brazil, a country formed throughout its history essentially by miscegenation: Indigenous people, Portuguese, Angolans, Nigerians, Spanish, Dutch, Italians, Germans, Poles, Japanese, Chinese, Koreans, Americans and other peoples. More than 200 millions of people, with the most beautiful Nature in an area larger than 8 million km<sup>2</sup>, being one of the largest economies with GDP higher than 2 trillion USD and high Human Development Index, without war and natural disasters. A land of Peace and Beauty.

* this is an informative news by De Conti Law Office

Click in the bellow Logo to use our Secure Contact Form:

data subject to change over time | 01th February 2024